

Linda P. Cohen joined Hanley & Associates, P.A., in 1998 from her legal practice in Washington state. Ms. Cohen's practice currently includes:

- Personal Injury Cases
- Dog Bites
- Litigation
- Auto Collisions
- Medical Malpractice
- Probate and Estate Litigation
- Guardian ad litem work
- Adoptions
- Unfair Trade Practice Acts (Lemon laws)
- Student's Rights
- Collections and Collection Litigation

Ms. Cohen is currently a Member of the Court Services Committee for Guardian Ad Litem chaired by the Honorable J. David Kennedy of the Maine District Court and the Co-chair of the Guardian Ad Litem Subcommittee of the Maine Bar Association.

Ms. Cohen's distinguished career includes positions as the City Attorney for a Washington municipality with a population of 15,000; Assistant Prosecuting Attorney for the Criminal Division of the Prosecutor's office in Seattle, Washington; General Counsel to U.S. Senator Robert W. Kasten, Jr.; Chief of Staff to U.S. Representative Rod Chandler; Judicial Law Clerk to Washington State Appellate Judge Walter E. Webster, Jr.; and an associate at the corporate law firm of Taft, Stettinius, & Hollister in Cincinnati, Ohio.

As an Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, she spent most of her career on a trial team prosecuting robberies, murder, assaults, burglaries, and other felonies. Ms. Cohen served as a trial attorney for the sexual assault unit and was assigned the prosecution of cases involving sexual assaults and physical abuse of children. The Prosecuting Attorney also selected her as the "Omnibus Drug Deputy" pursuant to Washington legislation, and lent Ms. Cohen's expertise regarding trial techniques to prosecutor's offices in surrounding counties. While City Attorney, Ms. Cohen drafted legislation to curb crimes associated with and facilitated by adult entertainment establishments.

Ms. Cohen graduated from Ohio State University summa cum laude and received her juris doctor degree from The National Law Center, George Washington University, where she received various honors and scholarships. Over the years she has served several non-profit corporations. Ms. Cohen was selected as 1 of 8 delegates representing the American Council for Young Political Leaders attending a program in Hungary in May of 1996 and she escorted the American delegation to Vietnam in November of 1997. Linda Cohen is admitted to practice law in Washington, Ohio, and Maine and has been admitted to practice in the federal bar.